Details:

I graduate with a diploma in Singapore Polytechnic, majoring in Media Communication Engineering. During my three years' study, I had learnt the relevant modules related to the media presentation, writing skills and hardware knowledge. In addition, I had the opportunity to design some projects by using the software such as: ADOBE, C++, AUTOCAD, PHOTOSHOP etc.

In addition to my academic study, I have taken some Part-time job to enhance my personal progress and valuable working experiences. I was employed by a Language learning school as a Chinese teacher for two years. Two years experience as a Chinese teacher has demonstrate my students and parents an good ability for being responsible for teaching and building the students' interest. Furthermore, I have also taken a private tuition job for another one and a half year.
