Details:

You can't build Rome in a day, but you can pick up Mandarin in just three months.

This is Christine, a female professional and experienced Mandarin teacher for six years. I am a Beijing native, used to live in Singapore for seven years, have been conducting class for hundreds of expats. I have good understanding of western culture, and know exactly how challenged and important for a foreigner to learn Mandarin.

I have developed a unique approach for native English speakers, published my own book 'Chinese for English Speakers' in November, 2006. It is a compilation of my instruction curriculum over the years, and will be helpful to both beginners and intermediates. It has eight chapters, ranges from basic vocabularies to common phrases. It's a fun learning process.

If you have other inquiries, please don't hesitate to contact me. Thank you.
